12 of 16 review helpful A useful text By Peter G Buckley I assigned this text almost unseen as a course book because it included so many of the classic essays which one might have ended up xeroxing The students found the book very useful I would have liked a more historical focus but that s because of my own training I will assign the book again 17 of 19 review helpful Very solid contr The articles presented in this text explore the social symbolic and political economic role of food in diverse cultures including the practices of giving receiving and refusing food and the connections between body image eating gender and sexuality The editors of this Reader have compiled an excellent group of papers ndash Sara A Quandt Wake Forest University School of MedicineFood and Culture A Reader a collection of essays about what and how we eat is in
