This is an endarkened, feminist, new literacies event. It will teach you about Supreme Love through Black women's voices and stories. A Supreme Lover is one who loves without conditions. She is so filled with the power of radical acceptance and forgiveness, deep wisdom and courage, that she is able to move forward in her quest to fulfill the self. She is able to overcome things (such as fear-inducing situations, personal failures, unintended consequences, personal humiliations, psychological relational disappointments, relational disrespectfulness, fear and is dominant in her own right, integrated with it, and able to transform fear into energy that fosters forward motion in lived experiences and relationships. A Supreme Lover is supernatural. To cultivate a Supreme Lover identity means to know the iterations of one's Self in fragments, to really dig them out, hear their voices, learn their stories and the revelations they contribute to the center, to the whole of one's Self. It then means to choose, from both the most divine and base aspects of Self, ways to
